Barber Shop Quartets Lather Songs For Smooth Show Here

Tonight's barber shop quartet time at the City Auditorium.

At 8 p.m. the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Quartet Singing in America, Inc., will sound the first note in a harmony contest that will include 300 members from over the South.

Tickets will be on sale at the auditorium box office.

Quartets are here from Miami, Jackson, Miss., Nashville, Chattanooga, Tampa, Little Rock and dozens of other Southern cities.

THE MAMMOTH SONG FIESTA will include the selection of championship quartets, a community sing against a choral background of the barber shoppers, and the best of the old-time songs.

James W. Morgan, publicity chairman for the "Cavalcade in Dixie" program which the barber shoppers will stage tonight, said the program will be one of the most unusual ever put on here.

"Everybody who likes to hear the sweet old songs and everybody who likes to try warbling in the bathroom should be sure to come over to the auditorium to be in on the big show tonight," he said. "You don't have to sing unless you wish, but if you have the inclination you can join in."
