

Tampa TRIB 2-2-55

Barbershop Harmonizers To Sing For Shrine Fund

The annual Harvest of Harmony will be presented by the Tampa Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., at 8 o'clock tonight in the Municipal Auditorium. Tickets will be sold at the box office.

This show is co-sponsored by the Egypt Temple Shrine with proceeds to be used for the work for Crippled Children that is done by Shrine temples everywhere, according to Dewey Goff, potentate of Egypt Temple.

With Chick Davies, president, co-chairman for the show tonight is G. Neville Waters. Other committee chairmen are tickets, Keith Sperry and Jerry Duty; talent and entertainment, Sam Breedon and Harley Miller; publicity, Kit Karson and Col. Lomax Gwathmey; staging, John Winton; costumes and make-up, Ben ushers, Wally West.

Guest quartets tonight will be the International SPEBS Champions of 1953, the States Four; Chicago the Dixie District champions, Florida Knights of Tampa; present Dixie Champs, The amians from Miami; and Florida State University at Tallahassee will come the Meander Four—a rapidly-rising tee quartet of students there.

Following the show, an informal party, known in Barber Circles as An Afterglow will be held at the Tampa Yacht Country Club. Members of the audience are invited to this fair along with the guest quartets and members of the club. Reservations may be made in the lobby of Municipal Auditorium prior to the show.