"THE WHODUNITS" — Tampa, Florida

Many opinions have been advanced as to the significance of the name of this uninhibited group—many of them unprintable. Persistent rumor has it that the name was a spontaneous outburst from an early listener, offended by an unearthly caterwaul and unable to accurately ascribe the blame. Be that as it may, no one can deny that this unabashed foursome has more fun than anybody—and with utter abandon they demonstrate the widely-known truth that "nobody has more fun than barbershoppers!" So here they are—the sound man's nightmare, the despair of music lovers, a quartet (?) like you can't hardly get no more—Tampa's very own (we grudgingly acknowledge) WHODUNITS!

(ED. NOTE—Opinions expressed above do not necessarily reflect the feelings of anyone who has ever heard this quartet!)
